- (1) (a) The Deposit is safeguarded by the Tenancy Deposit Scheme.
- (b) The Deposit amount (as stated on page 1) is paid by the Tenant to the Landlord's Agent (Liberty Living plc), acting on behalf of the Landlord.
- (c) The Deposit is held by the Landlord's Agent, in a separately designated deposit account of the Landlord. Any interest earned on the Deposit belongs to the Landlord.
- (d) The Landlord's Agent is a member of the Tenancy Deposit Scheme, which is administered by The Dispute Service Ltd, PO Box 1255, Hemel Hempsted, Herts, HP1 9GN. Telephone 0845 226 7837, Fax 01442 253 193, e-mail deposits@tds.gb.com.
- (e) At the end of the tenancy the Tenant should arrange with the Landlord's Agent a suitable time for a vacating inspection and any damages or other charges deductible from the Deposit will be advised to the Tenant at this point. If the Tenant signs the vacating inspection sheet by way of agreement as to the amount of the Deposit to be returned, the Deposit will be returned within 28 days. If the Tenant vacates without arranging an inspection, the Landlord's Agent will return the Deposit net of any deductions that the Landlord's Agent identifies as appropriate within 28 days.
- (f) The Tenant should inform the Landlord's Agent in writing within 10 working days of the end of the tenancy if the Tenant intends to dispute any of the charges deducted from the deposit. The Independent Case Examiner of The Dispute Service Ltd ('ICE') may regard failure to comply with the time limit as a breach of the rules of TDS and if the ICE is later asked to resolve any dispute may refuse to adjudicate in the matter.

- (g) If, after 10 working days following notification of a dispute to the Landlord's Agent and reasonable attempts having been made in that time to resolve any differences of opinion, there remains an unresolved dispute between the Landlord's Agent and the Tenant over the allocation of the Deposit the dispute will (subject to 12 (1) (h) below) be submitted to the ICE for adjudication. All parties agree to co-operate with the adjudication.
 - (h) The statutory rights of the Landlord and the Tenant to take legal action through the County Court remain unaffected by clauses (a) to (g).
- (2) (a) Deductions may be made from the Deposit according to clauses within this Tenancy Agreement.
- (b) A leaflet explaining how the Deposit is protected by the Housing Act 2004 will be provided to the Tenant by the person holding the Deposit (the Landlord's Agent).
 - (c) The holder of the Deposit will register the Deposit with and provide other required information to the Tenancy Deposit Scheme within 14 days of the commencement of the Tenancy or the taking of the Deposit, whichever is earlier and provide proof to the Tenant of compliance. If the holder of the Deposit fails to provide proof within 14 days the Tenant should take independent legal advice from a solicitor, Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB) or other housing advisory service.
 - (d) The procedure for instigating a dispute regarding deductions from the Deposit at the end of the Tenancy are explained in clause (12 (2) (i)).
 - (e) When the Landlord's Agent and Tenant agree how the Deposit should be returned, in full or in part, it must be paid back within 28 days. Failure to return the Deposit within the specified period will be grounds for the tenant to refer the matter directly to the ICE.
 - (f) The Landlord's Agent will advise the Tenant at the time of the vacating inspection if they propose to make any deductions from the Deposit. If the Tenant fails to attend such an inspection, the deposit (net of any appropriate deductions) will be returned to the Tenant within 28 days.
 - (g) The Tenant should advise the Landlord's Agent in writing if they wish to raise a dispute about the deposit within 10 working days after the lawful end of the tenancy and vacation of the property. The Landlord's Agent has a maximum of 10 working days to resolve the dispute.
 - (h) It is not compulsory for the parties to refer the dispute to the ICE for adjudication. They may, if they choose, seek the decision of the Court. However, this may take longer and may incur further costs. Judges may, because it is a condition of the Tenancy Agreement signed by both parties, refer the dispute back to the ICE for adjudication. If the parties do agree that the dispute should be resolved by the ICE, they must accept the decision as binding and final.
 - (i) The Agent, the Landlord or the Tenant can instigate a dispute by completing the Notification of Dispute form (TDS.2) and submitting it to the ICE. The form can be downloaded from the website www.tds.gb.com or be obtained directly from The Dispute Service Ltd at the address or telephone number specified in clause (12 (1) (d)).

- (j) If the Landlord's Agent instigates a dispute, he must send with the Notification of Dispute to the TDS the full Deposit, less any amounts already agreed by the parties and repaid. Where one of the parties to the Tenancy raises the dispute, the Landlord's Agent must send the Deposit or the balance in dispute together with the relevant evidence being a copy of the tenancy agreement, inventory and schedule of condition, any check in or check out report, correspondence and invoices or estimates within 10 days of being told that a dispute has been registered with TDS whether or not the Landlord's Agent or the other party want to contest it. Failure to do so will not delay the adjudication but the TDS will take appropriate action to recover the Deposit and discipline the Landlord's Agent.
- (k) The sum in dispute must be remitted to The Dispute Service Ltd within 10 days of being requested to do so, whether or not the parties wish the ICE to resolve the dispute.
- (l) The ICE will aim to resolve the dispute within 28 days of receiving the final documentation, i.e. once all the evidence considered necessary has been gathered or requested and a suitable time period has been allowed for submission.
- (m) TDS will pay out the money within 10 working days of the decision of the ICE or instruction of the court as appropriate.
- (n) The time-scale specified may be varied at the discretion of the ICE if he considers it necessary to seek legal or other expert advice, or in exceptional circumstances which affect the ability of either party to the Tenancy being able to provide information promptly.
- (o) The Landlord's Agent and the parties to the Tenancy must co-operate with the ICE in the consideration of the dispute and follow the recommendations of the ICE concerning the method of resolution of the dispute.
- (p) If one party raises a dispute with TDS, TDS will contact the other party giving a right to reply within 10 days. If the other party fails to reply TDS will make their adjudication and decision upon the information already held and find accordingly for the party raising the dispute.
- (q) If the Landlord or the Landlord's Agent are unable to contact the Tenant despite making reasonable efforts to do so, or the Tenant is unable to contact the Landlord or the Agent despite making reasonable efforts to do so, action must be taken through the County Court system to get a judgement for the return of or deductions from the Deposit because TDS is specifically excluded under the Statutory Instrument from adjudicating under these circumstances.
